

Piyush Sancheti

Senior Director of Strategic Programs, Energy-Efficient Design

Piyush Sancheti leads the end-to-end solution for energy-efficient (low-power) design in the Strategy & System Architects Group at Synopsys. Previously he has led product marketing for the Synopsys design signoff solution in the company's Digital Design Group and the software-based verification solution in the Verification Group. Before joining Synopsys in 2015, Sancheti held leadership roles in marketing, business development, and engineering at Atrenta (acquired by Synopsys), Sequence Design (acquired by Ansys), Sente, and Cadence. He holds an M.S. degree in computer engineering from Iowa State University.
